

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mothers at War Ministries and Resource Center, Inc. and the NAACP Evansville Branch 3048-B Criminal Justice Committee to Host Criminal Justice System Educational Forum in Evansville

Evansville, IN — June 25, 2026 — Mothers at War Ministries and Resource Center, Inc., in partnership with the NAACP Evansville Branch 3048-B Criminal Justice Committee, will host a Criminal Justice System Educational Forum on Thursday, June 25, 2026, from 6:00 PM to 7:30 PM at the Evansville Central Public Library, Browning Room A & B.

This community-focused event is designed to educate residents of Vanderburgh County about the wide range of criminal justice services, programs, and resources available locally. The forum will provide an opportunity for attendees to hear directly from key agencies and professionals working across the criminal justice system. There will also be a Q&A session.

Representatives from the following organizations expected to participate in this forum:

- Evansville Police Department
- Vanderburgh County Sheriff's Department
- Southwestern Indiana Recovery and Empowerment
- Mental Health Court
- Treatment Court
- Expungement Services
- Work Release / Safe House / Home Detention Programs
- Vanderburgh County Prosecutor's Office
- Judges of the Circuit and Superior Courts will be present

The forum aims to increase community awareness, promote transparency, and connect individuals and families with resources that support rehabilitation, recovery, and successful reentry.

"This forum is an opportunity for the community to engage directly with local agencies and learn about the services that are available to support individuals navigating the criminal justice system," organizers said.

The event is free and open to the public. Community members, families, advocates, and anyone interested in learning more about local criminal justice efforts are encouraged to attend.
